

“New Thing” Team Record 8-8
The Lions 79 vs. Northside 62
“Practice Equals Game Time”

The Lions played the best four quarters of basketball they've played this season. They took advantage of the opportunity to read, react and recover both on offense and defense. They scored a team record 28 points in one quarter. Also, they displayed desperation defense and self-destructive defense throughout this contest, holding the opponent's high scorer to nine points. Yes, the Lions are more focused and determined than ever to be defensive minded. The level of communication on defense allowed them to dominate their opponent and seal a victory by a solid margin.

Perhaps, the biggest challenge for the Lions is just ahead of them. Yet, if they continue to train like Spartan Warriors, when the battle comes they will run toward it with no fear. It is encouraging to see the Lions start to walk in their destiny and take by force what is rightfully theirs. Still, each player needs to stop, look, and listen to his teammates and coaches and continue the commitment to play with courage, confidence and character. It will take all of their faith, hope, and love to obtain their goal of going “as hard as they can for as long as they can”. This is a mark of true champions. Go Lions!
