The Lions 55 vs. Charlotte Catholic 65

"Practice Equals Game Time"

What an exciting opening game night it was for the mighty Lions who were pitted against a worthy opponent in Charlotte Catholic. The Lions came out with no fear, playing against a school that is classified as a 3A public school. This definitely set the standard for the season which fits quite nicely with one of the Lions' team mottos, "Go as hard as you can for as long as you can". That's exactly what the Lions did the entire night without a doubt.

At half-time the Lions had 29 to their opponent's 31, which was a shocker to some people but not to the Lions. The Lions are trained like Spartan Warriors which causes the team to "never give up or give in" no matter how extreme the game situation might be. However, the Lions need to focus even more on their desperation defense and their self-destructive defense because at one point the Lions fell behind during the third and fourth quarter at least by fifteen or more points.

Somehow with about five minutes left to go in the game the Lions went on a rampage turning up their desperation defense and self-destructive defense which allowed them to close the deficit to four points with two minutes remaining in the game. The Lion's den fans went ballistic as their opponent called for a well needed time out. Still, the Lions went on to lose this game by ten points but demonstrated all of the qualities that their coaches preach in practice daily, which are Courage, Confidence, and Character. The Lions need to improve in several areas if they desire to make a serious run for the Conference Championship. Here is a list of those areas the Lions need to improve in: communicating better on defense, executing on offense, closing down on the pass to the post, running fast breaks, boxing –out and finishing strong on every play.

Listed below are the offensive and defensive players of the game, along with the individual scores.
